Description:

Carved figure of a standing man in a slightly forward bending position. He has his elbows and hands slightly back and appears to be holding onto his belt. He has a black cap of hair, a small moustache and beads. Around his neck he wears a panel that hangs down his front but most of this is missing. He wears a loin cloth which passes between the legs and is tied around the waist. His feet are large and he is wearing sandals with two straps each.

Provenance:

Bought from Michael Graham-Stewart in London as AmaZona
