Description:

Cylindrical snuff box that narrows slightly as it rises from the base. This morphs into a wider cylindrical section with a raised ridge around its centre. The form narrows into a short cylindrical neck with a larger round flat mouth into which a round stopper is placed. This stopper has a bun-shaped top with 5 symmetrical petal-shaped hollows and one round indentation at the centre. A plaited string handle is tied around the neck and then attached to the lower part of the body.
