Two strong vertical lines that are part of the original textile run top to bottom on each side slightly in from the edge. The areas from the vertical line to the edges of the textile are decorated with triangular and linear designs with buttons added at accent points and along the vertical line. The central section is divided into five further sections by vertical rows of buttons - with rows of piping, in strong horizontal designs running across the sections. At the bottom ends of each row of buttons and at the corners of the textile are four tassels each of beads on short threads .
