Description:

Roughly oval apron of hide with a scooped section out at the waist area. The waist band is decorated with a roll of asymmetrical geometric beaded designs. The bottom curve of the apron is embellished with eleven circular beaded decorations. One large beaded roundel is attached to the centre of the apron and two half roundels are attached to the edges in line with the central decoration. Brass beads have been attached along to the edge from the upper section, down the sides to approximately where the roundels are situated.
