Description:

Rectangle of leather covered predominantly with white beadwork with other geometric designs in colour. There is a roll of leather filled with plant fibre and wrapped with beadwork as a waistband and also a leather flap creating a double layer along the top edge (its bead and brass bead trimming has most likely been cut off). The lower section has 6 beaded 'tongues' - the centre one being the longest and the end two the shortest a swell as two tiny flaps at the sides.
