

SAHRIS OBJECT PDF REPORT

Object Code: 30181 Artwork

Quantity: 1.00

Cultural Association:

Maker:

Production Place: London

Description:

The Parliament Collection:

Dramatic scene of a stormy sea with a ship (The Clyde) rolling in the heavy seas on the right. The 'Clyde', Capt. D.N. Munro, off Point Natal, Nov. 1st, 1826, in a gale from south-west, shifting to the north-east with a hurricane. Painted by W.J. Huggins from an original sketch by J.F. Owen. Engr. by E. Duncan

Provenance:

Unknown