Site Name: Gwalala Hill

Category: Archaeological

General Description:

Directions to site: From the Pafuri Gate, one travels along the Pafuri Gate/Punda Maria Road towards the Luvuvhu River bridge (south-east initially before turning south). Before the bridge, one turns east onto the Return Africa lodge road. Approximately 500m before the lodge is a left turn heading eastwards. This road takes one towards Crooks Corner and Riebok Vlei. After the wetland, a low-lying hill range rises up on the left (northern) side of the road. The largest hill here is called Gwalala, the namesake of the site, which is due east but within the same hill complex.
