

SAHRIS OBJECT PDF REPORT

Object Code: 83/53

Quantity: 1.00

Cultural Association:

Maker:

Production Place:

Description:

A craniotomy is the surgical removal of part of the bone from the skull to expose the brain. Specialized tools, like forceps, are used to remove the section of bone called the bone flap (2 parts), c. 1925.

Provenance:

Cape Medical Museum