

SAHRIS OBJECT PDF REPORT

Object Code: 83/105

Quantity: 1.00

Cultural Association:

Maker:

Production Place:

Description:

Tongue seizing forceps are a useful tool in a variety of oral and throat surgeries. The forceps feature soft, grooved, rubber jaws for a secure, atraumatic hold on the tongue during surgical procedures, c. 1945.

Provenance:

Cape Medical Museum