

SAHRIS OBJECT PDF REPORT

Object Code: 84/253

Quantity: 1.00

Cultural Association:

Maker:

Production Place:

Description:

Mackenzie's laryngeal forceps, which consist of two halves that join together to form a scissor-like instrument that has straight handles with flat inner edges and rounded outer edges; the handles flare out slightly, then end with oval finger grips, c. 1935.

Provenance:

Cape Medical Museum