

SAHRIS OBJECT PDF REPORT

Object Code: 84/874

Quantity: 1.00

Cultural Association:

Maker:

Production Place: Birmingham

Description:

A balance beam scale is a type of scale that uses a system of sliding weights that move on graduated beams. They date from 1900 and are made of cast iron, so they are very heavy. The main stand looks almost canon barrel. Material: Iron, wood. Colour: Painted green, brown. Maker: Day & Millward. Place: Birmingham, England, c. 1900.

Provenance:

Cape Medical Museum