

SAHRIS OBJECT PDF REPORT

Object Code: 84/244

Quantity: 1.00

Cultural Association:

Maker:

Production Place:

Description:

Rhinoplasty splints or nose splints are two silicone or aluminum devices placed either inside or outside the patient's nose after a nose surgery. Their functionality is to help patient's nose maintain its new shape, c. 1920.

Provenance:

Cape Medical Museum